Environmental Education Center

Jude Hamel,
Executive Director

Thank you for your interest in Prescott Farm's Community Connections Programs. In this guide, you will find over 128 programs scheduled for 2023. This is an especially exciting time at Prescott Farm because we have recently completed a major property project which vastly expands our ability to help you build your connection to the natural world. The property photos on the back page of this guide give you an idea of what it's like but you really have to experience it in person - so stop by and see!

The organization-wide focus in 2023 will be pollinators. Throughout the year, programs designed to appeal to all ages and interest levels will focus on the birds and insects that pollinate our flowers and most of our food crops. Look for the monarch butterfly icon next to program names that fit this theme and plan to join us as we appreciate New Hampshire's pollinators in a variety ways!

We hope you'll find lots of ways to Connect with us this year!

Which programs are right for you? Here's a guide!

Tap into Maple

Experience a New England tradition that predates New England—making maple syrup! From tapping a tree to tasting delicious maple syrup, you will take an inside look into every step of the syrup making process. Our naturalists will help you identify maple trees, learn the parts of the tree and their functions, find a tree to tap, learn the history of maple sugaring, and enjoy the sweet aroma of boiling sap.

New for 2023: Tap into Maple programs end inside the brand new Innovation Center with opportunities for questions, hand drilling practice, and—of course—a tasting of Prescott Farm’s very own syrup!

Saturdays in March; 10 am—3 pm

90 minute programs start at the top each hour; preregistration recommended.

Recommended ages: Multigenerational

Note: The program involves a 20 minute walk to our Sugar House with an uphill hike back after the program. Please wear boots and dress appropriately for the weather. Snowshoes or traction cleats will be provided as needed—bring your own if you have them!
