

Strategic Survival

Animals have many amazing adaptations that help them prepare for winter to survive the cold and snow. Most winter strategies are variations on migration, hibernation, dormancy, and remaining active. Start your adventure at the garden. Then, choose a trail through the Prescott Farm forest. Crow explorers might seek out Alan's Overlook--one of the best sit spot locations around.

Level:

Content:

Activities

Frozen Ground
Breaking Trail
Beaver Lodge
Coyote Nap
Sheltering Grouse

Games

Foxes and Mice
Winter Strategies
Simon Says
Migration Obstacle Course

Information

Beavers
Winter Strategies
Where did everyone go?
Snow Layers
Moving in Snow

Content:

Activities

Sheltering Grouse
Beaver Lodge
Frozen Ground
Breaking Trail
Acorn Investigation

Games

I Spy Winter Habitat
Foxes and Mice
Migration
Obstacle Course

Information

Squirrels and Acorns
Beavers
Moving in Snow
Frozen Frogs
Subnivean Zone
Where did everyone go?
Winter Strategies
Migration
Snow Layers

Content:

Activities

Acorn
Investigation
Sit Spot

Games

I Spy Winter
Habitat

Information

Squirrels and Acorns
Frozen Frogs
Insects in Winter
Subnivean Zone
Where did everyone go?
Oak Tree ID
Winter Strategies
Migration
Ruffed Grouse or Partridge